The GAZETTE, OF THE State of South-Carolina.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1779. [No. 2138]

BOSTON, June 7.

BY several officers lately from Rhode Island, we learn that the army there consists of eleven regiments of six hundred men each; and that a regiment of the noted Brown's provincial corps is stationed on Conanicut.

June 10. By a gentleman directly from Rhode-Island we are informed, that last week a large agent ship, laden with provisions, accidentally took fire as she lay in that harbour, and was entirely consumed, together with her cargo. We also learn that there is no kind of force there except two gallies, and the Renown of 50 guns which arrived with a large prize ship, the day he came away.

Since our last arrived here a brig in 7 weeks from Cadiz. She confirms the account we have repeatedly received of the formidable armament in Spain. There were upwards of 40 men of war in the bay of Cadiz, completely equipt, and ready for sea, very few of which were under 74 guns. The destination of this powerful squadron was still a secret, though the common talk was, that it would soon appear before Gibraltar.

Sunday arrived in a safe port a brigantine, prize to the Boston, laden with rum, sugar, &c.

Same day arrived a ship which was bound from South Carolina to France, but on her passage was taken by a New-York privateer, and afterwards retaken by the Boston frigate. Her cargo consists of rice & indigo.

MAY 20. A letter from a tory in England, to a friend in New-York written in cypher, was taken in a late prize: Upon decyphering it, it was found that the writer gives a very serious account of the uneasiness, tumults, and mobs in England, occasioned by the present situation of affairs, and particularly Admiral Keppel's treatment. The letter affirms that the complaints against the present government & administration are loud, and not to be stilled; and that the cry is, root and branch must be taken away, or the nation is undone.

MAY 22. Last Sunday arrived in town from Halifax, Nova-Scotia, Mr. Bisshner; a gentleman of family and character, with an intention of entering the American army, either as a volunteer or an officer: He is a native of Nova Scotia, which place he left twenty days since, and informs us, that there are but 2500 troops in that department, including new levies and foreigners; but that they have been under great apprehensions of an invasion from the Americans; and have put their town and harbour in a strong posture of defence; particularly Pleasant Point and the Citadel-hill, which places have 180 peices of cannon mounted on them. The inhabitants in general are for the American cause; & avow it openly; and seem positive that this spring will determine the war with Britain; as she is now reduced to a low ebb, notwithstanding all the news-paper gasconade, by Rivington, Howe and Henery.

We hear the privateer ship Pilgrim, from Lynn, has taken five valuable prizes, from Ireland to Quebec. One of the above prizes is safe arrived at port. She is richly laden with dry goods, provisions, &c.

Last Sunday returned into port, the private armed ship Monmouth, having taking a copper bottom privateer brig of 14 guns and 75 men—she left the prize 7 days ago.

It is affirmed as a fact that the plan of operations for the British troops in America this year, is to kill, burn and destroy every thing they are suffered to come nigh along the sea coasts, and if possible to render defenceless every port on the continent.

On the 29th ult. the brig Monmouth, of 14 guns, Capt. Ingersol, fell in with the privateer sloop Jenny, Capt. Noble Caldwell, of 12 guns, within sight of Sandy-Hook, whom he soon obliged to strike to the American flag.—Capt. Caldwell, his Doctor, and five or six men were wounded, one of which soon after died.—Capt. Ingersol did not lose a man.—Capt. Caldwell had with him the prize scooner General Arnold, from Sinepuxent for Boston, who got in to New-York.

The frigate Boston on her passage from Massachusetts Bay took the brig Boyd, Capt. Templeman, from New-York for Quebec, and retook the French ship La Vernay, who was taken by the Norfolk's Revenge, Capt. Mease, owned by Elibeck and Fares of New-York, and sent them for Boston.

All Officers in the Marine Department, residing to the southward of Hudson's river, who have heretofore been taken by the enemy and permitted to come out from them on parole, before 15th of May, last are exchanged, and are at full liberty to act in such department as their duty to their country calls them.

MAY 31. Tuesday last the Hon. the House of Representatives passed a vote to suspend Edward Bacon, Esq; of Barnstable, from a seat in that House, on account of his inimical disposition to the State.

POUGHKEEPSIE, June 14

Three desetors from the enemy, who came in on the 6th instant, on examination declared as follows, viz. that they left the enemy's lines between 12 and 1 that morning; General Clinton was then at Verplank's Point, together with Generals Vaughan and Mathews Lords Rawdon and Cathcart; three thousand at the Point; that they are building a battery and redoubt at Stoney Point, on the other side of the river; that in the ferry way are two frigates and about eighteen smaller vessels; one sixty four gun ship opposite Tarrytown; 17th regiment light dragoons, Lord Cathcart's legion, Emerick's corps, Queens rangers, two regiments of Hessians, 7th, 17th and 23d British regiments are with Sir William Erskine, who commands the flying army at Dobb's ferry. A Lieut. Col. commands on the other side opposite King's ferry, who, with the other principal officers lodge on board their vessels every night. It is reported among the soldiers, that they are to continue at the Point about three weeks; 44th and 57th regiments, and one Hessian ditto, are at King's ferry.

The troops which came from Virginia, not being furnished with proper clothing, &c. for the campaign, are permited to return to New York, for fifteen days, then to come up the river again.

Twelve grenadiers lately deserted from the enemy at King's ferry, arrived at Morris town on Sunday last who inform us, that desertions are very frequent, and may constantly be expected, as it is reported in the British army that General Clinton designs to attack the fort at West Point, of the strength of which they have very formidable accounts.

TRENTON, June 16.

At a Joint-Meeting of the Legislative Council and Assembly of this State, on Thursday last, Lieut. Col. David Brearley was elected Chief Justice, in the room of the Hon. Robert Morris, Esq; who hath resigned—at the same time Enos Kelsey, Esquire, was elected Clothier for the State.

The last accounts from the North river, mention, that the enemy are very busy in fortifying at a place called Stoney Point, on the hither side of the river, near King's ferry. It is supposed, by this manoeuvre that they have two objects in view, the one to make a strong hold in order to enable themselves to send out detachments into Jersey to plunder and forage; the other, by committing those depredations, to draw the attention of our army from covering the fort at West Point, and thereby facilitating an attack against it, which, it is said, is the enemy's main object. But in this, we flatter ourselves, they will be disappointed.

Friday last 200 American sailors and masters of vessels were exchanged at Elizabeth-Town; by several of those, who arrived here on Monday, we learn, that an embargo has been lately laid in New-York, in consequence of several of our frigates cruizing off Sandy-Hook, and most of the enemy's vessels of force being sailed up the North river or gone to sea; that they have drafted every fifth man in New-York and on Long Island, from 16 to 60 years of age, and those who do not turn out are put into the Provost; that a number of Hessians, left in New York as a garison, lately mutinied, many of whom having absolutely refused to do duty; and that our prisoners on board the prison ships suffer beyond description, being turned down in great numbers below decks, where they are obliged to languish in stench and dirt, by which cruel treatment many have fallen sacrifices to diseases and the cruel hand of oppression.

Saturday last the Honorable the Legislature of this State adjourned until Wednesday the 15th of September next, then to meet at this place.

His Excellency the Governor and Privy Council have been pleased to appoint Colonel John Neilson, Lieutenant-Colonel Peter Fell, and Majors Samuel Hayes and Elisha Walton, to the command of the One Thousand Militia that are immediately to be embodied for the defence of the frontiers of this State.

WILLIAMSBURG, July 3.

Extract of a letter from head quarters, dated June 14. 1779.

"We have at length moved from our winter quarters, and are in waiting for the British, who are fortifying at King's bridge; but we have some grounds for believing they intend paying the fort at West Point a visit. God send they may; if they do I think we shall give a good account of them The Maryland Virginia, and Pennsylvania levies are at this ground nine miles from the enemy, and twelve from the fort; the enemy are fourteen miles from the fort, in which there are 3500 continentals, so that if we are attacked they can lend us assistance; and should they attack the fort we shall bear down on their backs immediately."

Last Monday two gallies from Maryland, engaged a British frigate of 28 guns near the Capes, they took one of her boats and sunk another; the gallies had one officer and some men killed in the engagement which lasted upwards of eleven hours, the frigate taking the advantage of a fresh breze, made her escape in a very shattered condition.

In the HOUSE of DELEGATES.

RESOLVED, that the Governour, with the advice of the council be required immediately to banish from this commonwealth, all tory refugees, as described by the act entitled "An Act concerning escheats and forfeitures from British subjects, who are now resident within this state;" and that he also take proper measures to prevent their return to this commonwealth.

Charlestown, July 22.

THE anniversary of the declaration of the Independence of the United States of America, falling this year upon Sunday, the same was celebrated here the day following, in the usual manner, and a very elegant entertainment given upon the occasion, in the Council-chamber, by his Excellency the Governor, to a very numerous company, amongst which were such members of both branches of the legislature as were in town, all the public officers civil and military, a number of foreign gentlemen of distinction, the clergy, &c.

At the last anniversary meeting of the Palmetto Society the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year, viz. Edward Wayman, Esq; President; John Singer, Esq; Vice President; Capt. James Bentham, Treasurer; Capt. Philip Prioleau Secretary, and Messr. Septimus Robinson and Isaac Da Costa, Stewards.

The 28th of last month 35 Americans, under Col. Twiggs, at Mr. James Buttler's plantation in Georgia, fought a party of 60 picked British soldiers, mostly Grenadiers, commanded by Capt Muller of the 60th regiment, killed 4, amongst them Capt. Muller, and Lieut. Swinton of the 71st, wounded 13, and took 35 prisoners. The wounded, among them 3 officers, were permitted to go to Savannah on parole. Our party had only one man wounded. It is asserted, that there was found in Capt. Muller's pocket, an order from his Superior officer, not to give quarter to any inhabitant that should be found in arms; but we ought not to give credit to such an assertion until proved to be fact.

The brig Polly, Capt. Josiah Daniel, lately arrived from France, sailed from the isle de Re, the 10th of May last with a large fleet, under convoy of a squadron of men of war, commanded by M. de la Motte Picquet consisting of 5 ships of 74 guns, 2 of 64, and 4 frigates of 30 to 36 guns having a number of transports, a large body of troops on board, amongst them two Irish regiments, said to be destined as an augmentation to Count d'Estaing's force in the West-Indies. Capt. Daniel parted with them off Madera. On the 20th of June he saw a fleet of upwards of 200 sail, which he judged to be from the West Indies, bound home. In the Polly came passengers, William Blake Esq. Mr. John Abercrombie, and some other gentlemen. When he left France Capt. Paul Jones was fitting out a ship of 40 guns, another of 20, and one of 16, which, joined with 4 American privateers were shortly to sail from Port l'Orient on an Expedition of importance.

Part of the British army that lately entered and plundered the southern parts of this State, and took a view of Charles-Town, we hear, are returned to Georgia, and part remain on Port Royal Island, with their plunder.

In order to put a stop to the enemy's privateers coming into our inlets, and rivers, to steal negroes, &c. which it seems, they now do almost daily, as well to the Northward as the Southward, three additional gallies, to those already fitted, are nearly completed, and 'tis to be hoped will soon check the further depredations of the enemy in that way.

The General Assembly of Massachusets-Bay met in Boston on the 26th May, when they unanimously made choice of Samuel Freeman, Esq; for their clerk; after which they made choice of the Hon. John Hancock, Esq; for their speaker.

The Brig Sally, of this Port, Capt. Joseph Evans, from St. Eustatius, is arrived safe at Edenton, North-Carolina, whither she also carried two Prizes, a sloop and a Schooner from Georgia, laden with naval Stores and Lumber, bound for New-York.

If we are to give any credit to the information of a Spanish captain, lately arrived here, charged with dispatches to congress, the independence of the United States of America, was publickly recognised at Havana, on the 9th day of June last; and public notice at the same time given, to all persons inclined to fit out privateers to cruize against the English, that commissions would be granted them on the 1st day of July. The same captain adds, that an embargo was laid upon all the shipping at Havana the next day, and none suffered to depart but two with money for Philadelphia, and his with dispatches; that there were 5 ships of the line at Havana when he left it, 4 more ready to launch, and several others on the stocks, and no less than 18 frigates of 30 to 36 guns in port, mostly new, and of the length of 74-gun ships, carrying 26 to 30 18-pounders upon one deck.

Extract of a letter from Philadelphia, June 19.

"A few days ago, a fine privateer brig of ten guns, and 53 men, and this morning a fine privateer ship of 24 9-pounders, and 93 men, exclusive of officers, called the Polo, belonging to Liverpool, and owned by Nelson and company came up to town; the ship was taken by the Boston frigate, and we have an account of three valuable prizes having arrived at Egg harbour, viz. a snow from London, and two vessels from the West Indies, bound for New-York; and last night it was reported, and generally believed, that about 200 men belonging to the enemy, had deserted to General Washington, and chief of them light horse."

STolen, and carried away by the British troops, several horses, mares, colts and mules, with a number of cattle branded W2, or X; also several jack-ass which they took from my southward plantations.——Any person securing any of the above creatures, and giving me notice, so that I may get them again, shall be generously rewarded, and thankfully besides, by
